

United Trustees Association – 2026 Membership Application

I do hereby apply for individual membership in the United Trustees Association. I understand the mission of the Association is to:

1. Foster, improve, and promote the integrity of the default services industry.
2. Improve the standards, procedures and techniques for rendering such services;
3. Elevate the status and increase the economic and social benefits to the trust deed industry and those who receive its services;
4. Develop a better understanding and cooperative relationship with related industries and professions.

I also declare under the penalties of perjury, that I am also primarily engaged in the business of providing Trustee Services in one of the following categories: (1) a trustee providing nonjudicial foreclosure services; (2) a company issuing title products related to Trustee Services; (3) support functions (such as posting, publishing, crying sales, etc.); (4) attorneys or their employees who directly and regularly provide Trustee Services or who regularly represent Trustees with respect thereto; (4) employees of any of the above who through their default department, in-house trustee or affiliated trustee directly and regularly engage in providing Trustee Services; or (5) managers, supervisors, and advisory personnel directly and regularly involved in a Trustee Services function.
